

PROFESSIONAL AND BIOGRAPHIC PROFILE

Position: Full Member of the Neoenergia Board of Directors and the Sustainability Committee

Date of the last election: September 16, 2025

Positions and professional activities currently performed

Economic consultant and member of the Fiscal Council at GERDAU.

Personal profile and educational background

Single and father of a daughter, Denísio Liberato holds a degree in Economics from the Federal University of Viçosa (UFV - MG), as well as a master's and doctorate in Economics from Fundação Getúlio Vargas (FGV). He is a professor of Finance in executive programs at IDP in Brasília and holds an Investment Certification from ICSS. He is a frequent member of strictu sensu graduate examining boards on ESG-related topics at first-rate academic institutions.

He speaks Portuguese and English.

Experience in other sectors

He built a 25-year career at Banco do Brasil, where he recently served as President of BB Asset and Director at PREVI. He was also a Board Member of the Principles for Responsible Investments (PRI) in London (United Kingdom). In addition, he previously served as Director at ANBIMA and as Deputy Secretary of Economic Policy at the Ministry of Finance.

Other information

He was elected in 2024 among the 10 Best CEOs in Brazil

In 2023, he received the Black Race Trophy from the Zumbi dos Palmares University

He was the Winner of the 7th Revelation in Finance Award 2010 – IBEF(SP) / KPMG

He was a mentor in the Career Acceleration Program of ANFEA-USP (Association of blacks of the Faculty of Economics, Administration, Accounting and Actuarial of the University of São Paulo)