

PROFESSIONAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL PROFILE

Position: Full Member of the Neoenergia Financial Committee

Date of last election: September 1, 2023

Positions held and professional activities currently performed

He is also a member of PREVI's advisory board and is responsible for proposing paths and possibilities for the Fund's management.

Personal profile and educational background

Married and father of three children, José Carlos Vasconcelos is a lawyer and holds a master's degree in business organizational management from Universidade Federal de Uberlândia. In addition, he holds a Master's degree in Public Management and an MBA in Financial Business in Brazil. In the United States, he completed an MBA in Marketing and Management at UTM and training in Banking Sector at the UN University and Leadership at the Disney Institute. He speaks Portuguese, Spanish and English at B2 level.

Experience in energy sector

In the energy sector, he was the executive in charge of teams analyzing working capital and investment deals, foreign exchange operations and foreign trade for companies in the segment, in a Wholesale branch responsible for an International Business Center at Banco do Brasil.

Experience in other sectors

Carlos Vasco is a consultant for Gerson Lehrman Group and was an educator at Banco do Brasil Corporate University and a member of the Board of Faculdade de Administração e Negócios - FAGEN/UFU. As an independent consultant, he worked on the analysis of investments and expansion projects for Bestway Seeds do Brasil conglomerate. At Banco do Brasil, he built a 37-year career, working in the areas of services, administrative and legal consultancy, as well as tactical and commercial positions in the retail, high-income, agricultural, government and wholesale segments.