

Graduated in Law from the University of São Paulo (USP) and in German Law with an emphasis on International Taxation from the Albert Ludwigs University of Freiburg (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg). Mr. Ruschmann has extensive experience in national and international Tax Law. Strong performance in advisory issues (revisions of contractual structures and tax planning) and contentious issues. Recognized for its intense support to multinationals in the investment phase in Brazil, as well as large companies in the information technology sector. Founding partner of the law firm Brazuna, Ruschmann and Soriano – BRATAX, legal office exclusively in the tax area (since August 2013).

Cuide do meio ambiente

Imprima em preto e branco e somente se necessário.

Internal Use