

Alternate Member of the Board of Directors of Neoenergia

He is also a member of Neoenergia's Compensation and Succession Committee.

Personal profile and educational background

Divorced, father of one son, João Ernesto holds a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science from Estácio de Sá University (Rio de Janeiro).

He holds a post-graduate degree in Finance and Controllershship from Fundação Getúlio Vargas (Rio de Janeiro) and post-graduate degree in Private Pension Management from Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro (Rio de Janeiro)

He speaks Portuguese, English and Spanish.

Experience in Energy and Finance and Private Pension sectors

In the energy sector, he worked for 6 years in the Participations Department of Previ, having served on several advisory committees to the Board of Directors of companies from different sectors, including the energy sector, such as: auditing, finance, strategy and compensation and succession and M&A transactions. At BB Banco de Investimento S.A., he was head of variable income underwriting and M&A, and participated in IPO, Follow-On and M&A transactions of companies from different sectors, including the energy sector.

Experience in other companies

He was head at BB Banco de Investimento S.A. of the Private Equity FBIE fund, managed by The Carlyle Group, with investments in companies in the retail and industrial sectors. He is currently executive manager in the Investments Department at Previ, responsible for capital market transactions of affiliated companies, including a company in the energy sector, as well as for the financial management of the real estate portfolio, management of real estate funds and structured funds - private equity, multimarket and COE.

Other information

He is Effective Member of the Board of Directors of 521 Participações.

He was effective member of the Mergers and Acquisitions Ranking Subcommittee (M&A) at ANBIMA. He holds a certification as Member of the Board of Directors from IBGC and is certified by Instituto de Certificação dos Profissionais de Seguridade Social - ICSS, with emphasis on management.

